REPUBLICANS

There Will Probably Be Two Tickets in the Field Next Election.

MANY OPPOSED TO ROOSEVELT

Some Side Lights on Foraker and Especially on Fair-

BY WALTER EDWARD HARRIS, WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9.—The indications are that there is about to be launched in the Republican party a struggle between the conservative, or reactionary, and the so-called radical wings, which promises to be as bitter as that which raged between gold and silver factions of the Democratic party in 1895, when gold Democratic went off to Palmer and Buckner and Mr. McKinley went into the White House.

and Mr. McKinley went into the White House.

The radicals claim President Roosevelt as their leader, and their platform is further legislation regulating rallroads, anti-trust legislation, the curbing of land-thievery, and the conservation of the fuel supply owned by the government. The hostility of leading Republicans to the distinctive policies of the Rooseveit administration was exemplified every day during the recent seasion of Congress, especially in the Senate. It is expected to become more marked during the year, and to be far more apparent during the next session. By the time Congress adjourns next year, it is predicted that this hostility will be so greatly increased that the line of cleavage will be so marked as to indicate the practical existence of two parties in the Republican ranks.

In the outset it may be stated that there are persons who believe that President Rooseveit is really a candidate for another nomination, and is trying to bring about precisely the condition which is promised, and make his nomination a necessity if his party would be victorious at the polls.

Would Not Vote for Rooseveit.

Would Not Vote for Roosevelt.

A well-known Republican Senator, talking recently to a group of correspondents, Democratic and Republican, remarked: "If Roosevelt were nominated he would be overwheimingly defeated. There would be two Republican tickets in the field. The Democratic boil to Palmer and Buckner would be as nothing in comparison I should not vote for him, though I should not vote for him, though I should not vote for the Democratic candidate. I should vote the conservative Republican ticket. The nomination of Roosevelt would make as many kinds of Republicans as there are Democrats."

On the self-tsame day this remark was made a Democratic representative from the South said:
"I believe Roosevelt is certain to be renominated by the Republicans. He is the most consummate politician I have ever known. He is making his renomination a certainty, I believe he would be re-elected."

Such are the differences of opinion developed by the present peculiar sitzation. It is little wonder that Mr. Would Not Vote for Roosevelt.

Such are the differences of opinion overloped by the present peculiar sittation. It is little wonder that Mr. ryan, in the course of a recent inter-lew, should have expressed the beef that there would be as great division in the ranks of the Republicans ext year as there was in Democratic anks when he was the candidate the rest time.

The conservative Republicans are figing an immense amount of work. Their activity is much more apparent than that of the radical wing, and there are indications they will have the fight won, so far as the Republican national convention is concerned, long before the great assemblage convents. The conservatives are arrangement. the conservatives are arrangsestate leaders for delegates stay "fixed." men who are so y well broke that they can corts to start a stampede to conservative program is carcasservative The conservatives are arrang-

Rev. P. E. Swanstrom, Swedish Baptist Pastor, box 228, Grantsburg, Wis., writes:

"I feel that it 4s my duty as well as pleasure to let you know that I am perfectly well, entirely cured of chronic diarrhoea and catarrh. I thank you for your directions how to use Peruna, and for your kindness to me.

I have used Peruna according to your personal directions and I am very glad that I found a medicine which would cure me after three years suffering."

Jacob D. Ramsey, D. D., Bishop Union A. M. E. Con-ection, writes from 1934 Annin St., Philadelphia, Pa.,

"Having heard much of the great curative power of your Peruna, we concluded to try it. For colds and dys-pepsia, we have found it to be an excellent remedy."

THE vocation of preaching is a very trying one, especially to the throat and lungs. The preacher must stand before large audiences, frequently in illy ventilated rooms, sometimes over heated, and other times filled with dangerous drafts. The liability to catarrh is very great. This is so universally true that the majority of preachers have catarrh, in more or less pronounced form.

H. M. Turner, D. D., LLD., Street, Atlanta, Ga., writes:

Many preachers have found Peruna of use to them, to prevent as well as to relieve the catarrhal ailments to which the preacher is constantly subjected.

Immediately upon hanging out his shingle as a practitioner of law, Mr. Fairbanks became the solicitor of the receiver of the L. B. & W. R. R., at Indianapolis. Mr. Fairbanks's uncle was the receiver, and he started his nephew in the world with the handsome salary of $5,090 a year.

he once issued an injunction against railroad strikers.

While Mr. Fairbanks was acting as receiver of the L. B. & W., in 1877, he went into court during a general railroad strike and filed numerous complaints against striking trainmen and others, and had them brought into court for contempt, in that they tied up the operations of trains. Several of the strikers served jail sentences. Mr. Fairbanks appeared against the men, who were trying to force the payment of better wages; his name is signed to the complaint, which document is now in the possession of one of the rival candidates for the presidential nomination, who regards it as a highly interesting souvenir.

As stated, Mr. Fairbanks has an organization in nearly every State of the Union,

A bright young lady of the Buckeye State tells how she came to be acutely sensitive as to the taste of coffee:

"My health had been very poor for several years," she says. "I loved coffee and drank it for breakfast, but only learned by accident, as it were, that it was the cause of the constant, dreadful headaches from which I suffered every day, and of the nervousness that drove sleep from my pillow and so deranged sleep from my pillow and so deranged my stomach that everything I ate gave me acute pain.

In view of this long affiliation with corporation interests, it is small wonder that many Republicans are wondering whether it would be wise to nominate as the man to take up the Roosevelt policie, one who can hardly fall to have deep sympathy with efforts of the big transportation companies, especially, to prevent further legislation curbing their power, and to secure the lax enforcement of present laws.

A strictly high-class, artistic and entertaining program was presented by the "Grand Concert Company." of "The Ithaca Conservatory Bureau," of "The Ithaca Conservatory Bureau," of Ithaca, N. Y. The company consisted of four beautiful young ladies, each being an accompilshed artist in her line. It is doubtful if a Crewe audience ever listened to as sweet or more accompilshed singer than Miss Winifred Fuller, soprane. She simply captivated her audience from the start. Miss Lillian Cropper, the violinist, had to respond to several encores. The reader, Miss Madge A. Rogers, was a decided hit as a reader, and was recalled several times. The planist, Miss Lela Hulslander, added no little to the evening's entertainment, her solos being thoroughly enjoyed.
